

BRITISH RING No 25
The International Brotherhood of Magicians
Application for Membership
CODE OF ETHICS

Candidates for membership of British Ring No 25, of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, (the Ring) must have had a sincere interest in the art of magic for at least two years prior to application. Members must agree to abide by the Constitution and Byelaws of the Ring and promise to never violate any part of the following 'Code of Ethics.'

DECLARATION: I hereby apply to become a member of the IBM British Ring No 25, and if accepted AGREE:

- 1 To oppose the wilful exposure to the public of any principles of the Art of Magic or the methods employed in any magic effect or illusion.
- 2 To display ethical behaviour and conduct as magicians in the presentation of magic to the public including non-interference with or jeopardising the performance of another magician either through personal intervention or the unauthorised use of another's creation.
- 3 To recognise and respect the rights of the creators, inventors, authors and owners of magical concepts, presentations, effects and literature and their right to have exclusive use of such creations and the rights to grant permission to others.
- 4 To discourage false or misleading statements in the advertisement of effects or merchandise in literature and actions pertaining to the magical arts.
- 5 To discourage magical advertisements of any magical apparatus, effect, literature or other materials for which the advertiser does not have commercial rights.
- 6 To avoid when giving a magical performance for children or using a child as an assistance, any verbal or physical behaviour which would give cause or be likely to give cause for complaint.
- 7 To promote the humane treatment and care of livestock used in magical performances.
